CARNEGIE HALL'S IVY TERRACE

The Carnegie Hall Ivy Terrace is a brick patio located near the entrance of Carnegie Hall that combines attractive lighting, seating, landscaping, and a beautiful fountain created by local artist Sassi Harel. It is a visual focal point and a welcoming spot for friends before and after events at Carnegie Hall.

This is your opportunity to acknowledge and support the rich historical heritage of West Virginia by adding your name to its future. When you purchase a personalized brick, your name, the name of your organization or business, or the name of someone you wish to honor will become a permanent symbol on the Ivy Terrace for all to see and enjoy.
