ARTS IN EDUCATION

Through our educational programs, we aspire to offer students of all ages the chance to experience the arts in rich, coherent and comprehensive ways. Key education programs, among the many offered by Carnegie Hall, include:

COMMUNITIES LinkUP!

A collaboration between Carnegie Hall, Greenbrier County Schools and The Weill Music Institute of Carnegie Hall (NY) providing curriculum support, recorders and professional development for teachers with a culminating concert featuring a regional orchestra.

CREATIVE CLASSROOMS

A series of innovative hands-on workshops, led by teaching artists in schools.

KIDS' COLLEGE

A two week summer camp designed to spark creativity, encourage self-esteem, and develop a love for life long learning in the arts.

CREATIVE YOUTH JURIED ART SHOW

Featuring original works of art from Greenbrier Co. students in grades 4-12.

CARNEGIE YOUTH CHOIR -NEW-

A vocal music program for children in upper elementary grades.
